

Wendell Gene Brown, 69, of Fort Worth, TX, passed away Sunday, April 4, 2010. He was born August 1, 1940 in Big Spring, TX to Jacob and Mary Brown. He married Judy Fisher on October 4, 2008 in Lewisville, TX.

He was a longtime resident of Lewisville and Highland Village. He was employed as a design and construction supervisor in the metroplex. He was a graduate of the University of North Texas. He was dedicated to his family and to his church.

Survivors include his wife, Judy Brown of Fort Worth; children, Owen David Brown and wife Andrea of Corinth, Lucy Ann Branch and husband Michael of Port Lavaca, and Adam Stuart Brown and wife Julie of Sioux Falls, SD; grandchildren, Ryan, Emily, Ashley, Collin, Shane, Austin, Cody, Wendell and Jenna; brothers, Jacob Brown of Fort Worth, Marlin Brown of Tucson, AZ and Roger Brown of Granbury; sisters, Mildred Clark of Argyle and Juanita Battenfield of Oklahoma City, OK.

Wendell was preceded in death by a grandson, Ethan Brown in 2004 and his wife Janet Ivens Brown in 2007.

Memorial services will be 7 p.m. Thursday, April 8, 2010 at the Episcopal Church of the Annunciation in Lewisville, TX.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Episcopal Church of the Annunciation, 602 N. Old Orchard Lane, Lewisville, TX 75077 or Main St. Homecare, 450 W. Main St., Azle, TX 76020.